IMPORTANT INFORMATION

YOUR INSURANCE CONTRACT

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. You have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

If we ask you questions that are relevant to the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

Also, we may give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this, you must tell us about any change or tell us that there is no change. If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change.

You do not need to tell us anything that reduces the risk insured, is common knowledge, the insurer knows or should know as an insurer or the insurer waives your duty to tell them about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, the insurer may cancel your contract or reduce the amount it will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE - SUBSIDIARY AND ASSOCIATED COMPANIES

Cover which is arranged for subsidiary and/or associated companies in addition to named insureds.

If you enter into a contract of insurance on behalf of any subsidiary and/or related company of the named insured, that subsidiary and/or related company has the same duty of disclosure as the named insured. We recommend that you ensure that each subsidiary and/or related company is made aware of the duty of disclosure and given an opportunity to make any necessary disclosures.

ESSENTIAL READING OF POLICY WORDING

We will provide you with a full copy of your policy as soon as it is received from the insurer.

It is essential that you read this document without delay and advise us in writing of any aspects which are not clear or where the cover does not meet with your requirements.

CHANGE OF RISK OR CIRCUMSTANCES

It is vital that you advise the insurer of any changes to your company's usual business. For example, insurers must be advised of any

- mergers or acquisitions,
- changes in occupation or location,
- new products or services, or
- new overseas activities.

Please contact us if you are in doubt as to whether to notify your insurer of a change in business operations.

Your duty to disclose applies also when you amend, alter, vary or endorse a policy.

HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENTS, CONTRACTING OUT, REMOVAL OF SUBROGATION OF RIGHTS

You may prejudice your rights to a claim if, without prior agreement from your insurer, you make any agreement that could prevent the insurer from recovering the loss from a third party. These 'hold harmless' clauses are often found in leases, licences and contracts for maintenance, supply, construction and repair.

INSURING THE INTERESTS OF OTHER PARTIES

If you require the interest of another party to be covered by the policy, you MUST request this. Most policies will attempt to exclude indemnity to other parties (e.g. mortgagees, lessors, principals etc.) unless their interest is expressly noted on the policy. This is not applicable to Professional Indemnity or Directors & Officers policies.

GENERAL ADVICE WARNING

It is important that you understand and are happy with the policies we arrange for you. Any recommendations we have made have been based on a consideration of the premium quoted and the scope of cover offered by an insurer. We can give you general information to help you decide but unless we have specified otherwise, we have not advised you on whether the terms are specifically appropriate for your individual objectives, financial situation or needs. We therefore recommend that you should carefully read the relevant Product Disclosure Statement and other information we provide before deciding.

NSW STAMP DUTY EXEMPTION

From 1 January 2018, some small businesses with an aggregated annual turnover of less than $2 million may be exempt from NSW stamp duty on commercial motor vehicle, commercial aviation, occupational indemnity or public/product liability insurance policies. (*aggregated turnover is your Australia wide annual turnover plus the annual turnover of any businesses that are your affiliates or are connected with you). To apply for an exemption or a refund please contact us for a copy of the 'NSW Insurance Duty - Small Business Exemption Declaration Form' if one has not been provided to you.

AVERAGE/UNDER INSURANCE (BUSINESS INTERRUPTION)

Some policies contain an Average/Co-Insurance clause which is fully set out in the 'Basis of Cover' or 'Policy Specification' of the policy. For the types of cover usually provided, the Average/Co-Insurance calculation is arrived at by applying the Rate of Gross Profit, Revenue or Rentals (as applicable) to the Annual Turnover, Revenue or Rentals (as applicable). These factors first being appropriately adjusted as provided for in the 'Trend of Business' or 'Other Circumstances' clause.

If you are in any doubt about the application of this clause to your policy, please contact us for assistance.

AVERAGE/UNDER INSURANCE

Home buildings and contents, fire, industrial special risks and other policies often contain an average clause. This means that you should insure for full value which may be replacement, indemnity or market value depending on the type of insurance cover arranged. If you are under insured your claim may be reduced in proportion to the amount of under-insurance. A simple example, illustrating the basic principle, application and effect of the Average/Under Insurance Clause is as follows:

EXAMPLE

• Full Value at commencement date	$1,000,000
• Sum Insured at policy commencement date	$700,000
$700K/$1M - insurer pays 70% of any insured loss & insured retains balance of 30%
• Amount of Claim, say	$100,000
• Amount payable by Insurers as a result of the application of Average/Co-Insurance (being 70% of $100,000)	$70,000

WORKERS COMPENSATION

If you have arranged a business package or composite type policy through us it will not include Workers' Compensation insurance. This must be arranged as a standalone contract as per the various State/Territory legislative requirements. It is compulsory for employers to have Workers' Compensation insurance in place to cover work related injuries to their employees and workers. You must also ensure your agents, employees and contractors meet all of these requirements. If you are in doubt regarding this notice, please contact us for assistance.

SEVERAL LIABILITY

Where your policy cover is provided by more than one insurer it is important to note that each insurer is only responsible to the extent of their individual subscription and there is no obligation for that insurer to make up the shortfall of any other subscribing insurer in a claim or return premium payment.

NEW CLAIMS / UNREPORTED LOSSES

Any quotation we have obtained on your behalf is based on the understanding that there will be no deterioration in the claims experience between the date insurers quoted their terms and the inception date of the cover. If claims do occur during this period, insurers have the right to revise the terms quoted or even withdraw their quotation. Please let us know whether there are any losses which have occurred that have not been reported to us/insurers, whether you intend making a claim or not.

CONFIRMATION OF TRANSACTION

You may contact us by telephone or in writing to confirm any transaction under your policy, such as renewals and endorsements. If necessary, we will obtain the information for you from the insurer.

BINDING AUTHORITY

This insurance is issued by JLT Risk Solutions Pty Ltd (ABN 69 009 098 864, AFSL 226 827) ('JLT') under an authority to bind cover on behalf of the insurer, QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited ('QBE'). In issuing and underwriting this insurance, JLT act as agents of QBE and not as your agent. JLT is a business of Marsh McLennan.

If LCIS cannot issue insurance to you as an agent of QBE because the underwriting information you have provided to LCIS means that the insurable risk falls outside of LCIS's binding authority, LCIS can instead arrange your insurance on the open market as your agent. In this instance, LCIS will be acting in a dual capacity, as an agent for QBE in collecting the information and then as your agent in arranging the insurance. LCIS will also be acting in such a dual capacity in circumstances where you have obtained multiple insurance policies through LCIS, where some of those policies have been issued by LCIS as agent of QBE and others have been arranged by LCIS as your agent.

All insurance coverage is subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of the applicable individual policies. JLT cannot provide any assurance that insurance can be obtained for any particular client or for any particular risk.
